Our Mission: We help women and single-parent families move from homelessness to self-sufficiency.

Lucy Zanders to Retire from Theresa Living Center

Thank You & Congrats, Lucy!

It is with mixed emotions that we officially announce the retirement of Lucy Zanders. After more than 9 years of dedicated service with Theresa Living Center, Lucy will be stepping down from her role as Executive Director.

Lucy took on the role of TLC's executive director in 2013 after serving on the board of directors for many years. Lucy has a unique and broad skill set that she selflessly applied to her work, showcasing her talents in accounting, social work, and fundraising, to name a few. During Lucy's tenure, TLC grew in every way, including increasing the number of residents we serve, providing relevant programming to those residents, and building a strong infrastructure and network of community support. We will miss Lucy's heartfelt and compassionate leadership and hope to honor her legacy as we move forward.

We wish Lucy endless days of relaxation and fun, and bid her a very fond farewell!

New Executive Director Named

Welcome, Angie!

The Search Team and Executive Committee is pleased to name Angie Hays as the new Executive Director of Theresa Living Center. Having already begun the onboarding process in late February, Angie will soon step in to take the place of Lucy, our retiring Executive Director.

Watch for more about Angie's background in our next newsletter!

A New Partnership

We are excited to share that Twelve Consulting Group has chosen Theresa Living Center as a Community Partner for 2022! A leader in Connected Planning, Twelve has provided design and planning services to 100+ clients since its start in the industry, helping leaders utilize their data to make smarter, faster decisions.

Twelve has the goal of unlocking TLC's potential by investing in us, partnering with us to spark transformative change in our residents' lives, and amplifying our mission to eradicate homelessness through empowering families to become self-sustaining. Twelve's core values of well-being, excellence, collaboration, and personal growth echo the goals of TLC, and we look forward to the positive outcomes of this partnership.
